Student Evaluation of Laboratory Rotation

The evaluation of your laboratory rotation is valuable to the Nutritional Sciences Graduate Program (NSGP). Your comments will remain confidential between you, the Director and the Coordinator of the NSGP. This information is important to understand as we guide students when they are selecting a laboratory because you have first-hand experience as to what a rotations entail. Please answer the following questions with constructive comments that will help us guide our new students.

Student Name:

Name of Professor:

Was your experience working in this laboratory positive? Give reasons why or why not.

Was the type of learning appropriate? Give reasons why or why not.

Was the person guiding your experience helpful and supportive? Be specific.

What would you say to a student considering this laboratory for one of their rotations?
